Re: United States v. Skye Xu, 23-cr-00133-JMF

Dear Judge Furman:

Through his counsel, defendant Skye Xu respectfully requests that the Court continue his sentencing hearing from April 10, 2025, to April 17, 2025. Counsel has a conflict with the recently set April 10, 2025 date. I contacted the government on Monday, March 17, 2025 regarding this request and the government informed me that it does not oppose this request and is available to attend a hearing on April 17, 2025.

Given the complexity of the case and that there is no plea agreement, Mr. Xu requests the Court grant him permission to file a reply brief no later than April 10, 2025. If upon reviewing the government's sentencing submission Mr. Xu determines that a reply brief is not necessary, Mr. Xu will inform the Court via a letter, filed no later than April 10, 2025. On March, 18, 2025, I contacted the government regarding this request and the government informed me that it does not take a position on this request.

For the reasons discussed above, Mr. Xu requests the Court order that: (1) his April 10, 2025 sentencing is adjourned to April 17, 2025, at a time convenient to the Court, or to another date thereafter that is convenient to the Court; and (2) Mr. Xu is granted permission to file a reply brief no later than April 10, 2025.

Best regards,

/s/
